

Who we are

Having spent the last 7 years honing their craft, the faces behind Unknown Group have established themselves as venue bookers, event promoters, artist managers, record label directors, and all-round industry leaders. Since wrapping up their infamous weekly event 'Institute of Dance', which ran for over five years, Unknown Group have booked, curated, and marketed events for multiple local venues, with exceptional results.

"In a market that is so fickle and ever-evolving, the right marketing tactics guarantee longevity. Our strategies have helped numerous venues thrive and adapt during multiple shifts in the local nightlife economy..." - Trent Elliott, Director.

Premier Booking Service.

What we do

Unknown Group's current clientele base includes premiere local dance venues Tusk, The Grand Hotel, Onefiveone, and The Harp Hotel.

In addition to running successful club-based shows, Unknown Group have now also expanded their focus toward larger scale events (2000 cap plus), with the intention of delivering the biggest names in dance music to the Wollongong region, and providing their patrons with a professional and safe experience.

- Patrick Topping

“Wollongong was the dark horse of the tour, what a show!”

01

“I had no idea this place existed, the crowd was unreal.”

“Unknown Records & Unknown Associates have undoubtedly been one of the most professional & ethical groups that I've ever had the pleasure to work for & within my 25-year + also career. ”

“The main point of difference with the team is that they know the scene & it's history inside out, and treat artists with the respect that they deserve and not just according to who is having their 10 minutes in the spotlight. Their ability in recognising & pairing local DJ's who've built long-term solid followings & a bag of rad DJ skills with current headliners benefits the entity Dance Music Industry.”

Owner & Director

“ The positive impact they have had on the Wollongong scene is remarkable. ”

Thick as Thieves has been working with Unknown Records and Unknowns Associates for over 7 years now. They pride themselves on professionalism, and this is reflected in the feedback we regularly receive from both the artists who they book, and the punters that are at their shows. We now regularly receive artists requests that they specifically want to play a show for Unknown when they are touring Australia, such is the reputation that they have created.

They have also managed to build up a number of local artists who now tour Australia and the globe on a national level, some of whom we regularly book for our Melbourne shows. I know that the synergy between Thick as Thieves and Unknown will lead to many more years of an incredible relationship in what is a difficult industry.
